

A diagram showing three lines intersecting at a single point. The vertical line is labeled γ . The line sloping down to the left is labeled β , and the line sloping down to the right is labeled α .

